So the said bill was passed and sent to the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Key,

Ordered, That it be entered on the Journal, that Mr. Key would have offered the following as a substitute for the propositions in relation to the works of internal improvement, if he had not been cut off by the previous question :

“Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer of the Western Shore shall be, and he is hereby authorised to sell all the State’s interest as stockholder and creditor, with all the priorities and liens now held or claimed by this State in the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, and transfer such interest, priorities and liens to the purchaser or purchasers thereof; provided, that he can obtain a sum not less than seven millions of dollars of the State’s debt contracted to make the loan or loans for the said Canal Company and to pay for stock therein, and the State’s proportion as a stockholder of the indebtedness of the Company on its scrip and other evidences of debt, to be paid in the certificates of debt or bonds of the State, issued to make such loan or loans, or to pay for such stock at the par value thereof, and in the evidences of debt of said company at the nominal value of the same; and provided, further, that no transfer shall be made till the bonds, certificates and evidences of debt are actually received by the Treasurer; provided, that the Treasurer of the Western Shore may, and he is hereby authorised to receive from said purchasers, for any bonds issued for the service of said Company, and which may now constitute a part of the State’s sinking fund, an equivalent of other bonds of the State of the same value as to time of redemption and rate of interest; provided further, that on the confirmation of the sale of the interest of the State in the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company aforesaid, the direct tax created by the act of April session 1841, and the
